GENERAL.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 3rd June 1889.

No. 70.—In para 9 of Notification No. 177, dated the 20th December 1887 prescribing rates of seigniorage to be levied upon charcoal burned in the District Jungles of the Shimoga District, the sentence beginning with the words "the above rules" and ending with the words "in preceding paras of these rules" shall be omitted, and the following shall be substituted in its place, viz:—

"The above rules do not affect the existing privileges of kandayam-paying raiyats and of mohatarfa-paying chunam kiln or charcoal-burners, iron-smelters or iron-smiths, to get firewood free for charcoal burning. Mohatarfa-paying chunam kiln or charcoal-burners, iron-smelters or iron-smiths (but not kandayam-paying raiyats) shall be bound to obtain free licenses for cutting firewood for burning charcoal and to abide by the terms of such licenses. The privileges above referred to (including free firewood to raiyats without licenses) are liable to be withdrawn in the case of abuse".

The 1st June 1889.

No. 64.—The following rule shall be substituted for para 10 of Notifications No. 112, dated the 13th August 1888, No. 113, dated the 13th August 1888, No. 127, dated the 10th September 1888, No. 161, dated the 18th December 1888, and No. 195, dated the 28th January 1889, and for para 9 of Notification No. 1483, dated 25th October 1888, prescribing rules for the levy of seigniorage on firewood and charcoal felled or burned and removed from District jungles in the Mysore, Kadur, Chitaldroog, Hassan, Tumkur and Kolar Districts:—

"These rules, so far as they prescribe seigniorage, shall not affect existing privileges of kandayam-paying raiyats and of mohatarfa-paying iron-smelters and iron-smiths to get firewood or charcoal free for their bonâ fide private use. Mohatarfa-paying iron-smelters and iron-smiths (but not kandayam-paying raiyats) shall be bound to obtain free licenses for cutting firewood or burning charcoal and to abide by the terms of such licenses. Firewood or charcoal obtained free shall not be sold, bartered or otherwise used for purposes of trade. The privileges referred to in this rule (including free firewood and charcoal to raiyats without licenses) are liable to be withdrawn in the case of abuse".

No. 69.—In modification of the Notification No. 239, dated 30th March 1886, published in the Mysore Gazette, dated 3rd April 1886, the following rates of seigniorage are authorized to be levied under Section 23 of the Forest Rules of 1878 on firewood and charcoal felled or burned in the District jungles of the Bangalore District :—

2. No person shall cut firewood or burn charcoal in any District jungle or remove the same except under a license granted by the Amildar or District Forest officer or such other official duly authorized on that behalf by the Deputy Commissioner of the District upon payment of the seigniorage duty as above and all persons engaged in such felling or burning shall abide by the terms of the license and by such directions as the Deputy Commissioner may, with the approval of the Inspector General of Forests, lay down as regards the class or classes of trees to be felled and the manner in which they shall be cut and removed.

3. If, within the time specified in the license, the holder thereof fails to remove firewood or charcoal, the license shall become null and void and the licensee shall not have any right to the refund of the fee.

4. The whole quantity covered by license shall be removed in one lot and at one time.

5. The license holder shall have no right to claim firewood or charcoal from a jungle other than the one named in his license on the ground that he failed to obtain the quantity in that jungle.

6. The maximum number of cart-loads to be removed under one license shall be 25 and no licenses shall be granted in a closed jungle.

7. It shall be competent for the Deputy Commissioner to close any jungle or parts thereof to the public and prohibit therein all cutting of firewood or burning of charcoal.

8. Any person found cutting or burning in, or removing firewood or charcoal from, a closed jungle or removing the same from the jungle allotted in excess of the number of cart-loads covered by the license or any person removing firewood or charcoal under a time-expired license shall be deemed to have cut and removed such firewood or charcoal without a license.

9. No paid license shall be granted for cutting or burning and removing firewood or charcoal from the jungle tracts set apart for the bonâ fide use of the cultivating raiyats.

10. These rules, so far as they prescribe seigniorage, shall not affect existing privileges of kandayam-paying raiyats and of mohatarfa-paying iron-smelters and iron-smiths to get firewood or charcoal free for their bonâ fide private use. Mohatarfa-paying iron-smelters and iron-smiths (but not kandayam-paying raiyats) shall be bound to obtain free licenses for cutting firewood or burning charcoal and to abide by the terms of such licenses. Firewood or charcoal obtained free shall not be sold, bartered or otherwise used for purposes of trade. The privileges referred to in this rule (including free firewood and charcoal to raiyats without licenses) are liable to be withdrawn in the case of abuse.

11. The following kinds of trees shall not be felled or burnt for firewood or charcoal :—

Sandal, teak, poon, blackwood, honne, jalari, nandi, heb-halasu, karachi, bili-matti and kari-matti.

12. All firewood or charcoal felled or burnt on private or inam lands and removed for sale or otherwise and all firewood or charcoal imported from Her Majesty's Territories, shall be covered by a free license to be obtained from the Amildar or District Forest officer or such other official duly authorized on that behalf by the Deputy Commissioner of the District and when so covered, the same shall be exempted from seigniorage above prescribed.

13. When firewood or charcoal is not covered by a license, the same shall be subject to the seigniorage duty on the carts entering their destination and shall be collected by the Taluk or such other agency as the Deputy Commissioner may appoint, and a printed pass in the prescribed form shall be given.

14. All persons importing firewood or charcoal for consumption or use in the City or the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore in pursuance of the licenses granted them shall present such licenses to the Forest agency stationed at the entrance to the City or the Civil and Military Station, who shall examine the quantity as entered in each license and endorse thereon the manner of test with date and signature of the person testing it. These licenses shall be collected at the gates and such as have been issued by the Forest Officer be returned to him and the rest to the Amildars concerned to be attached to their counterfoils.
